Addendum 2011-12 Student Parking Seabreeze High School

Driving to school is a privilege, not a right. Buses are available for all students within the Seabreeze High School attendance zone. The Seabreeze High School Administration reserves the right to suspend or revoke a student's parking permit for disciplinary reasons and/or serious violations of the Volusia County Student Code of Conduct. Please drive safely.

This year students who routinely ignore school parking/driving rules and regulations will be fined:

Fines

- $5 - Failure to have parking decal hanging on rear view mirror and/or obtain a temporary parking pass.
- $5 – returning late from lunch after 3rd warning
- $10 - Parking in the faculty/staff parking lot without permission
- $15 - Failure to purchase a decal and parking on campus

All parking fines should be cleared within 10 school days. Students with fines not cleared within 10 days will lose their parking privileges until all fines are paid .

- Continued on back -

For the 2011-2012 school year, the following consequences will result in the revocation of driving privileges:

Students with excessive tardies and/or unexcused absences to their first period class and fifth period class (immediately after lunch) over a 4 week period shall lose their driving privilege for a period of:

1st Offense - 5 school days

2nd Offense - 10 school days

3rd Offense - remainder of the semester

Students leaving campus without permission.

Students identified as selling or giving their parking decals to another student will have their parking privileges revoked for the remainder of the year.

Students identified as buying or accepting a parking decal from another student will be ineligible to apply for a decal for the remainder of the school year.

Students who continue to park on campus without a parking decal or while their parking decal is revoked will have their vehicle towed and their parking privileges revoked for the remainder of the year.

Refunds will not be given to students who lose their parking privilege (suspended or revoked) for disciplinary reasons and they must pay $20.00 to reapply.
