

Educational and Career Planning for Juniors

Junior Year

- Monitor your data through Pinnacle website
<http://schools.volusia.k12.fl.us/piv/>
- Learn about post high school opportunities.
- Pay attention to the announcements and check the website daily
<http://www.seabreezehigh.org>.
- Explore career choices using the Choices Planner which has the following tools; basic skills, work values, Interest Profiler, Occupational Information, sample resumes, college and scholarship searches. The website is <http://www.bridges.com>.
- Begin a file to keep records of your career and college research.
- Use the FACTS.org and EPEP system for career and college information and planning tools. The website is <http://www.facts.org>.
High School Students: Bright Futures Eligibility and SUS Admissions Requirements Status
- Attend meetings with college representatives on campus.
- Meet individually with your counselor to discuss career and academic plans.
- Take appropriate tests: Scholastic Aptitude Tests (SAT I and/or SAT II) American College Tests (ACT), College Placement Tests (CPT) or the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB).
- June through August is an excellent time to visit prospective colleges and gather application materials.
- Student Athletes: NCAA website <http://www.ncaa.org> for eligibility information